The Wizard's Tower Gamebooks

Late Summer, 2016 CE

From: The Magister
To: You

My most promising novitiate,

Thank you for downloading these printable adventure sheet bookmarks from the Wizard's Tower. This PDF has been offered freely to you for help in your sorcerous adventures. Use them wisely with a #2 pencil and a firm, yet gentle, eraser.

These bookmarks are compatible with the Fighting Fantasy rules used by gamebooks such as The Citadel of Chaos, as well as numerous other fan-written stories.

Make sure to print the first two pages double-sided. You needn't print this page, unless of course you would like to frame it and hang it above your fireplace mantle where it admittedly belongs. One can't place too high a price on even as fleeting an association with true greatness as this letter represents for you, my dear student.

At any rate, go forth on your journey into the unknown knowing you have my fullest confidence in your abilities, though do please try not to die too early - I have a reputation to uphold, after all.

For more printable gamebooks and gamebook supplements, be sure to pay a return visit to <http://wizards-tower.com!>

Best wishes (metaphorical, not literal - so don't bother asking),

Your Magister
